The Senate resumed its session at 11:46 o'clock A. M.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

A quorum present.

The Senate resumed the consideration of House Bill No. 1337:

A bill to be entitled An Act prohibiting the betting or wagering or the taking of bets or wagers of money or other things of value upon the result of any contest of speed, skill, or endurance and providing the penalty therefor.

Which was pending roll call at the time the Senate proceeded to the Hall of the House of Representatives for the joint session.

Upon the passage of the bill the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Senators Beacham, Dell, Getzen, Gomez, Hodges, Lewis, MacWilliams, Mann, Raulerson, Shivers, Stewart, Watson—12.

Nays—Mr. President; Senators Anderson, Andrews, Bass, Black, Butler, Caro, Chowning, Gary, Gillis, Hale, Hilburn, Holland, Larson, Lundy, Parker, Parrish, Rose, Shelley, Sikes, Turner, Whitaker—22.

So the bill failed to pass.

Senator Parker moved that the rules be waived and the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 254 passed the Senate.

Parliamentary inquiry by Senator Getzen:

Mr. President:

"I arise to appoint a parliamentary inquiry, in that, to request of you, as President of the Senate, a ruling as to whether or not the State Senate can reconsider the passage of Senate Bill Number 254 when the said Senate Bill Number 254 passed on yesterday, and upon motion, rules were waived and Senate Bill Number 254 was immediately certified to the House, which motion required a two-thirds vote of the Senators to pass. A further point being that there has been no motion made to recall Senate Bill Number 254 from the House of Representatives where such bill is now located.

"I refer you to Hughes Parliamentary Guide, Revised New Edition 1929-1930, Page 303 under Chapter 201 for reconsideration, stating: 'A motion to reconsider may be made even though the paper is not in possession of the house but action thereon may not be taken until the papers have been returned.'

"I refer you further to the House rules and Manuel of Congress, known as The Jeffersonian Manuel under the heading of reconsideration, citing as follows: 'The rules permitting the reconsideration of a question and affixing to it no limitation of time or circumstances, it may be asked whether there is no limitation? If, after the vote, the paper on which it is passed has been parted with, there can be no reconsideration, as if a vote has been for the passage of a bill and the bill has been sent to the other House.'

"I also respectfully refer you to Senate Rule Number 10, to-wit: 'When a question has been decided by the Senate, any Senator voting with the prevailing side may, on the same day or on the next day of the session thereafter move a reconsideration thereof, and such motion, (except during the last seven calendar days of the session), shall be placed first in the order of the day for the day succeeding that on which the motion was made, and if the Senate shall refuse to consider, or upon reconsideration shall confirm its first decision, no further motion to reconsider shall be in order, unless by unanimous consent'."

The Chair ruled that a motion to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 254 passed the Senate, could be entertained, after said Bill had passed the Senate and been certified to the House of Representatives on the previous day.

The question recurred on the adoption of the motion made by Senator Parker to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 254 passed the Senate.

Upon which a roll call was demanded.

Upon the adoption of the motion made by Senator Parker the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Mr. President; Senators Anderson, Andrews, Butler, Caro, Chowning, Clarke, Dell, English, Gary, Gillis, Gomez, Hale, Hodges, Holland, Larson, Lewis, MacWilliams, Mann, Parker, Parrish, Rose, Shelley, Sikes, Stewart, Turner, Watson—27.

Nays—Senators Bass, Beacham, Getzen, Lundy, Murphy, Raulerson, Shivers, Whitaker—8.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And the Senate reconsidered the vote by which Senate Bill No. 254 passed the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 254:

A bill to be entitled An Act providing for a minimum of eight months free schools in the several counties of the State of Florida in both elementary and high schools each year; providing for an impartial expenditure of State funds as between schools with respect to length of term; making an appropriation to increase the county school fund; estimating the expenditure of the appropriation and requiring tax levies in amounts sufficient to enable county boards of public instruction to maintain all schools for eight months and to retire debts incurred for current expenses; regulating the expenditure of this fund and making it a misdemeanor to spend the money appropriated by the State in aid of the counties otherwise than as in this Act provided, and providing punishment therefor; providing a penalty for the failure to maintain any school for a term of eight months.

The question recurred on the passage of the bill.

Senator MacWilliams moved that the rules be waived and Senate Bill No. 254 be placed back on the Calendar of Bills on second reading, for the purpose of amendment.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And it was so ordered.

Senator MacWilliams moved that the rules be waived and the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which the following amendment offered by Senator Hodges to Senate Bill No. 254, on May 30th, failed of adoption:

In Section 2, line 12 (typewritten bill), strike out the word "seven," and insert "five".

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And the Senate reconsidered the vote by which the foregoing amendment offered by Senator Hodges to Senate Bill No. 254 failed of adoption.

The question recurred on the adoption of the amendment offered by Senator Hodges to Senate Bill No. 254.

Pending the adoption of the amendment offered by Senator Hodges to Senate Bill No. 254, the hour of adjournment having arrived, a point of order was called and the Senate took a recess at 1:00 o'clock P. M. until 3:00 o'clock P. M. this day.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Senate convened at 3:00 o'clock P. M. pursuant to recess order.

The President in the Chair.

Dear Mr. Getzen:

We are enclosing herewith a petition for legislation to restore Dade City, Florida, to its former councilmanic form of government, and to restrict the city limits to exclude such property as lies in outlying districts and is without city benefits and, therefore, cannot be held subject to city taxes.

You will note that this petition is signed by many of the leading citizens and heaviest taxpayers of the city. We are firmly convinced that the best interests of the city will be served through the passage of the local law asked for by this petition, and we trust that you will give the matter your early attention and careful consideration.

Yours very truly,

THE DADE CITY BANNER,
T. S. THOMAS,
J. Y. O'NEAL,

We, the undersigned citizens and voters of Dade City, Florida, do hereby respectfully request that the charter of Dade City be amended or that a new charter be enacted restoring the City to the councilmanic form of government under which it operated prior to 1929, and contracting the territorial limits of the City by excluding therefrom lands on the East, North, West and South sides thereof that are not in any way benefited by being included in the corporate limits.

Section 1. The territorial boundaries of the said municipality shall be amended by the City Commission for the City of Dade City in meetings to be held by them hereafter, which said action taken by them shall be the same as if their actions in amending the boundaries of the City of Dade City by the exclusion of lands now embraced in said boundaries, had been enacted in the law.

(a) The City Commissioners of the City of Dade City shall, as soon as practical after the passage of this Act and same becoming a law, cause to be made a survey of the City of Dade City and by such survey shall determine properties that are benefited directly or indirectly by any improvements heretofore made by the City of Dade City upon which assessments and levies are now assessed or heretofore have been assessed against such properties for such improvements and that the City Commission is hereby vested with authority to pay for such survey from the general revenue fund of the said city and that before such survey is made the City Commissioners shall authorize the same upon a majority vote of the City Commissioners at any regular meeting. That, in making the said survey or in determining whether or not such properties are benefited by any improvement heretofore made by the City of Dade City, the said City Commissioners of the City of Dade City shall exclude from its boundaries all lands used for agricultural or horticultural purposes. 2. Wild and unimproved lands that have not been or are not now sub-divided, which are not served by or abutting on a paved street, water or sewer line. 3. Further, that in determining properties that are benefited or not benefited by such improvements the said City Commissioners of the City of Dade City shall have the right that where a portion or any tract is so benefited and the remaining thereof is not benefited only the benefited portion may be taxed by the municipality.

It is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that lands now composing the boundaries of the City of Dade City, Florida, shall not be taxed by said municipality hereafter unless and until such time as such lands or any parcel or parts thereof, except the exceptions herein stated shall hereafter receive benefits from the said municipality and then only such parts or so much of said lands as shall so receive direct benefits, which may be so taxed.

The word (Benefit) being herein described and shall hereafter be construed to mean:

That should the owner or owners of such lands or parts or parcels thereof and the City of Dade City disagree as to whether
